DICK STOCKTON
TELEVISION VOICE OF THE CLEVELAND CAVALIERS

Stockton, associated with Boston's Storer station WSBK-TV, has been play-by-play commentator for the Boston Red Sox since 1975. He has also been the television voice of the Boston Celtics, sports director of WBZ-TV, and announcer for the New England Patriots pre-season football games. Mr. Stockton serves as play-by-play announcer for the NFL football telecasts on NBC. Prior to his 1971 arrival in Boston, Stockton served as sports director of KDKA-TV, Pittsburgh. While associated with KDKA-TV, he also called play-by-play action for the Pittsburgh Steelers' pre-season games and hosted the Pittsburgh Pirates post-game shows.

Mr. Stockton has also been affiliated with the CBS Television Network, where he served as announcer for NFL Football, Pro Football Report, and ABA Basketball. Stockton's sports broadcasting credentials also include announcing for the ABA's Carolina Cougars, Madison Square Garden Home Box Office Cable Television's NBA games, and Baltimore Colts pre-season football. He has also worked as both sportscaster and newscaster for KYW-TV/Radio in Philadelphia.

Mr. Stockton is a graduate of Syracuse University.

JOE TAIT
WWWE RADIO ANNOUNCER

Joe Tait will be entering his eighth season as the Cavaliers "man behind the mike". Known throughout the NBA as one of the top play-by-play men in the business, Tait was selected as Ohio's "Sportscaster of the Year" in 1974 and again in 1976. The versatile Tait also broadcasts Cleveland Indians baseball and has done hockey, Indiana University football, and Indiana Pacers basketball. He lives in Lakewood, Ohio with his wife Edith and children Christina, Karen, and Joey.

Jim Brewer

6-9 — 220 — Forward — No. 52
COLLEGE: Minnesota, 1973
HIGH SCHOOL: Proviso East, Maywood, Illinois
BIRTHPLACE: Maywood, Illinois
BIRTHDATE: December 3, 1951 AGE: 25
RESIDENCE: Cleveland, Ohio
PRO EXPERIENCE: Cleveland — 4 years
HOW ACQUIRED: First round selection in 1973 college draft

LAST SEASON: Jim led the wine and gold in offense (third consecutive year), defense (second consecutive year), and total rebounds (second consecutive year), and became the Cavs all-time career rebounding leader. He also lead the team in minutes played (2,672), steals (94), blocks (82), and shared the dubious distinction of leading the team in disqualifications (3) with four other Cavaliers.

THIS SEASON: Coach Bill Fitch will once again be calling on Brewer to provide the Cavs with strong rebounding at the power forward position.

One of the most durable players in the National Basketball Association, Brewer saw his string of 298 consecutive games snapped last year when he missed a February game against the Nets due to illness.

Throughout the league, he is fast gaining a reputation as one of the NBA's top defensive stalwarts. The 1976-77 campaign marked his second straight appearance on the NBA All-Defensive Team as a second team pick.

PERSONAL NOTES: Known to Cavs fans as "Brew", the soft-spoken and upretentious crowd favorite was recruited out of high school by Bill Fitch for his Minnesota Golden Gopher Team. Brewer is an intense individual who enjoys reading in his spare time. He received a sociology degree from Minnesota.

GARY BROKAW

6-4 — 178 — Guard — No. 25
COLLEGE: Notre Dame, 1975
HIGH SCHOOL: New Brunswick High, New Brunswick, New Jersey
BIRTHPLACE: New Brunswick, New Jersey
BIRTHDATE: January 11, 1954, AGE: 23
RESIDENCE: Cleveland, Ohio
PRO EXPERIENCE: Milwaukee, Cleveland — 3 years
HOW ACQUIRED: Obtained from Milwaukee with Elmore Smith in exchange for Rowland Garrett and Cleveland's first round draft picks in 1977 and 1978, January 14, 1977.
WIFE: Renee
CHILDREN: Sommer (will be one year old in March)

LAST SEASON: Brokaw came to the Cavaliers last January after 2½ seasons with Milwaukee. In his 39 games as a Cavalier he showed the local fans that he has the speed, quickness and talent to be one of the better players in the NBA. Brokaw can lead the fastbreak and can take the ball to the hoop with a burst of speed. He scored in double figures 10 times as a Cav, including his Cavalier high of 21 against Kansas city (April 3). His field goal percentage as a Cavalier is 46.7.

THIS SEASON: At the age of 23, Gary Brokaw will be entering his fourth NBA season when many players that age are just beginning pro careers. with proven ability as a speedy scoring guard (he scored 36 points in one game against Detroit in the 1976 playoffs), Brokaw has the skills to make a significant contribution in the backcourt.

PERSONAL NOTES: Brokaw was drafted by the Milwaukee Bucks on the first round of the 1974 NBA draft as a hardship case following his junior year at Notre Dame. He was raised in New Brunswick, New Jersey where his father is a police captain. As a youngster he was national champion in the 8 year old division of the punt, Pass and Kick competition and has his name displayed at the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio in recognition of this feat. In high school he once scored 60 points in a single game.

This past March 25th, Gary and wife Renee became the proud parents of a baby girl named Sommer. Backgammon, reading and tennis are among Gary's interests and he shares a goal with his teammates — to bring an NBA Championship to Cleveland.

AUSTIN CARR

6-4 — 200 — Guard — No. 34
COLLEGE: Notre Dame, 1971
HIGH SCHOOL: Mackin High, Washington, D.C.
BIRTHPLACE: Washington, D.C.
BIRTHDATE: March 10, 1948 AGE: 29
RESIDENCE: Cleveland, Ohio
PRO EXPERIENCE: Cleveland — 6 years
HOW ACQUIRED: First round selection in 1971 college draft.

LAST SEASON: Unhampered by injuries, Carr played in all 82 regular season games and all three playoff games for the Cavs. He lead the team in field goals made (558), field goals attempted (1,221), and points (1,329). Austin also established a personal high with a 42 point performance against the Celtics in Boston (April 10). At the conclusion of the season he was selected by the writers and broadcasters as the Cavs Most Valuable Player and received a handsome ring with his number "34" embedded in diamonds from J.B. Robinson Jewelers.

THIS SEASON: Carr will be looking for another injury free season in 1977-78. A healthy Carr could be a deciding factor in leading the Cavs to a third straight spot in the playoffs. A fine offensive player, who averaged over 20 points per game in each of his first three NBA seasons, Carr will once again be called upon to bear the scoring burden in the backcourt.

PERSONAL NOTES: Carr was the first player selected in the 1971 NBA Draft. He is the only player on the current roster to have represented the Cavs in the NBA All-Star Game (1974). In 1972 he was selected for the NBA All-Rookie Team. Prior to enrolling at Notre Dame, Carr lettered in basketball, baseball, and cross-country at Mackin High School in Washington, D.C. and captained his baseball and basketball teams in prep school. Carr is the Cavaliers all-time leader in free throws made (1,117) and free throws attempted (1,372) and ranks second on the list for most games played (394), most minutes played (12,508), most field goals made (2,917), most field goals attempted (6,535), most personals (843), most points scored)6,951), and best scoring average (17.6). Soft-spoken and always smiling, Carr is called "A.C." by his teammates.

COLLEGE: Marquette, 1972
HIGH SCHOOL: St. Catherines, Racine, Wisconsin
BIRTHPLACE: Racine, Wisconsin
BIRTHDATE: November 30, 1949 AGE: 27
RESIDENCE: Cleveland, Ohio
PRO EXPERIENCE: New York Nets, Carolina Cougars (ABA), Cleveland — 5 years
HOW ACQUIRED: Obtained rights from Los Angeles in exchange for Cavaliers' first round pick in 1975. May 17, 1974
WIFE: Elores
CHILDREN: Kareeda (1 year)

LAST SEASON: Chones is a durable player who completed his second consecutive season in which he played in all 82 regular season games. Against Washington in the play-offs he shot .593 from the floor (16/27), was perfect from the charity stripe (7/7) and averaged 10.3 rebounds per game. The big man from Marquette also established new personal season highs for field goal percentage (.731), and offensive rebounds (208).

THIS SEASON: Jim Chones enters his fourth campaign as a Cavalier with more experience in the Cleveland pivot than any other man on the roster. If the Cavs are to have a shot at a Central Division title and a third consecutive playoff berth they will need a strong performance at center. Chones is the type of player who can give the Cavs that extra push towards victory. Chones' experience and leadership will be counted upon heavily in 1977-78 and if he passes the test the Cavs could go to the head of the class.

PERSONAL NOTES: Chones began his professional career in 1972 with the New York Nets in the ABA after signing as a hardship case out of Marquette. The following year he played with the Carolina Cougars. Since joining the Cavaliers at the start of the 1974-75 season he has proven to be a cooperative and valuable team member and in 1975 and 1976 he was chosen Most Valuable Player by the local media. An excellent athlete, Chones ran both the high and low hurdles and played defensive end on his high school football team. While at Marquette he was a member of the Warriors' NIT Championship team of 1970. He started on the U.S. Team in the Pan American Games in 1972 and was voted Most Valuable Player in the Martin Luther King All-Star Game that same summer. On the local scene, Chones donates much of his time to working with mentally retarded youngsters.

WALT FRAZIER

6-4 — 210 — Guard — No. 11
COLLEGE: Southern Illinois University '67
HIGH SCHOOL: David T. Howard, Atlanta, Georgia
BIRTHPLACE: Atlanta, Georgia
BIRTHDATE: March 29, 1945 AGE: 32
RESIDENCE: New York City
PRO EXPERIENCE: New York Knicks — 10 years
HOW ACQUIRED: Obtained rights from New York in exchange for the rights to Jim Cleamons, October 8, 1977

LAST SEASON: Frazier led the Knicks in playing time, assists, and steals and hit a season high of 41 points at Indiana last March. He passed nine players on the NBA all-time scoring ladder and finished his career in New York having played more games, more minutes and scored more points than any other Knick.

THIS SEASON: The addition of Frazier to the Cavalier roster came at a most appropriate time. Frazier should help the Cavaliers by providing the leadership necessary to steady the team on the court.

PERSONAL NOTES: One of pro basketball's most complete players, Frazier became the Knicks' top draft choice in 1967 after leading Southern Illinois to the NIT Championship and capturing MVP honors in the process. In 1970 and 1973, he helped spark the Knicks to NBA titles. During his ten year career with the Knicks he played in seven consecutive NBA All-Star Games and was named MVP in the 1975 contest. An outstanding defensive player, Frazier was named to the NBA All-Defensive Team seven times. Frazier is known as a flashy dresser who enjoys the finer things in life. A quiet individual, Frazier practices yoga and meditation for relaxation. He is nicknamed "Clyde."

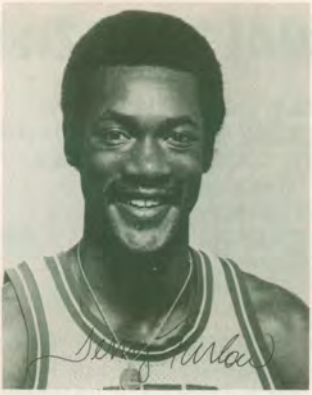
TERRY FURLOW



6-4 — 190 — Guard — No. 32
COLLEGE: Michigan State '76
HIGH SCHOOL: Flint Northern, Flint, Michigan
BIRTHPLACE: Flint, Michigan
BIRTHDATE: October 8, 1954 AGE: 23
RESIDENCE: Flint, Michigan
PRO EXPERIENCE: Philadelphia — 1 year
HOW ACQUIRED: Obtained from Philadelphia in exchange for future draft choices, October 3, 1977

LAST SEASON: Furlow spent much of his rookie season at Philadelphia playing behind a long line of veteran forwards. The 12th player taken in the 1976 NBA Draft played only 174 minutes and averaged only 2.6 points in 32 games; hardly enough time for this fine pure shooter to demonstrate his skills.

THIS SEASON: A versatile performer who can play both the big guard and small forward positions, Furlow and his scoring ability will be most welcomed by the "wine and gold" who are looking to add more punch to the offense. In his first appearance in a Cleveland uniform (against Boston during the exhibition season), Furlow scored 11 points in 18 minutes hitting 5 of 8 shots from the floor and 1 of 1 from the line.

PERSONAL NOTES: Furlow enjoyed a brilliant college career at Michigan State where he became the Spartan's all-time leading scorer scoring 1,777 points in 100 games for a 17.8 average. He was the third leading scorer in the nation as a senior, averaging 29.4 points per game and was named to several All-American teams. Furlow did not make his high school varsity at Flint Northern until his senior year but led his team to the state title. He is especially proud of the fact that the junior varsity and varsity teams at Flint Northern never lost a game while he was in the lineup.

An intelligent and articulate person, Furlow majored in economics. During the past summer Terry and his close friend Campy Russell operated a basketball camp at Hillsdale College in Michigan. He represented the 76ers in the CBS "Horse" Contest. In his spare time, Furlow enjoys playing backgammon and fishing.

JOHN LAMBERT

6-10 — 225 — Forward/Center — No. 24
COLLEGE: University of Southern California, 1975
HIGH SCHOOL: Berkeley High, Berkeley, California
BIRTHPLACE: Berkeley, California
BIRTHDATE: January 14, 1953 AGE: 24
RESIDENCE: Cleveland, Ohio
PRO EXPERIENCE: Cleveland — 2 years
HOW ACQUIRED: First round selection in 1975 college draft

LAST SEASON: Lambert enjoyed his most productive season since coming to Cleveland as the Cavs' first round draft choice in 1975. He established new marks for games played (63), minutes played (555), field goals made (67), field goals attempted (157), free throw percentage (.694), offensive (62), defensive (92), and total rebounds (154), average rebounds (2.4), assists (31), personals (75), steals (16), blocks (18), points (2.5), and points per game avg. (2.3). An injury to Campy Russell last March gave Lambert valuable playing time and the hardworking, aggressive Lambert responded to the occasion. In a stretch of thirteen games he scored 37% of his entire season point total and blocked 8 shots, 44% of his season total.

THIS SEASON: Lambert's development into a top-notch professional player should make even greater strides with additional playing time. At 6-10 he can play either the forward or center position. His aggressive and determined play will be a valuable asset in 1977-78 and the years to follow.

PERSONAL NOTES: Lambert was an All-American prepster at Berkeley High School in Berkeley, California and was twice selected Northern California Player of The Year. As a senior at USC he shot .557 (151/271) from the floor to set a Trojan record that still stands. The high point of his collegiate career came at the Aloha Classic in Hawaii during the spring of 1975, when during a three game tournament, he scored 55 points (18.3 avg.), and led the field with 45 rebounds (15.0 avg.) enroute to leading his team to the title. He was named to the All-Tournament team along with David Thompson (N.C. State), Gus Williams (USC), Lionel Hollins (Arizona State), and Junior Bridgeman (Louisville); all future NBA performers. Lambert earned a B.A. Degree in public relations from USC where he had a 3.7 scholastic average. In recognition of his outstanding athletic and scholastic achievement, he was awarded the USC Gimbel Award for excellence in athletics and ucademics. He has appeared in numerous television programs. This past summer John devoted much of his time to working with local youngsters in the SOHIO Youth Basketball Clinics.

MICHAEL "Campy" RUSSELL

6-8 — 215 — Forward — No. 21
COLLEGE: Michigan, 1974
HIGH SCHOOL: Pontiac Central High, Pontiac, Michigan
BIRTHPLACE: Jackson, Tennessee
BIRTHDATE: January 12, 1952, AGE: 25
RESIDENCE: Cleveland, Ohio
PRO EXPERIENCE: Cleveland — 3 years
HOW ACQUIRED: First round selection in 1974 college draft

LAST SEASON: Campy Russell once again proved to be a valuable cog in Bill Fitch's "wine and gold" machine, leading the Cavs in scoring average with a 16.5 mark and going over the 1,000 point plateau for the second consecutive season. The past campaign also saw Campy establish new personal season highs for minutes played (2,109), average minutes played (30.1), free throws made (288), free throws attempted (370), free throws percentage (.778), offensive (144), defensive (275), and total rebounds (419), rebounding average (6.0), assists (189), steals (70), blocks (24), and scoring average (16.5) despite missing 12 games with a sprained ankle. He tied his career high 36 points against Portland at The Coliseum last February 15th.

THIS SEASON: This could be the year that Russell attains the recognition that he deserves as one of the leagues top forwards. Russell will continue to give the Cavs scoring punch from the forward position and work on his defensive game.

PERSONAL NOTES: Russell was Cleveland's first pick in the 1974 draft and the first hardship case ever taken by the Cavaliers. At the University of Michigan he earned All-American honors and was instrumental in leading the Wolverines to the Big Ten crown and an NCAA Mideast Regional berth in 1974. He was named to the national All-Rookie team as a college freshman. One of ten children, Russell has six brothers and three sisters, and was named after former baseball great Roy Campanella by his father, a great baseball fan. Although he is no relation to former Michigan and professional star Cazzie Russell, his older brother Frank saw action in the NBA with the Chicago Bulls five years ago. Campy is an avid "shutter bug" who would like to build his own darkroom. This past summer he ran a basketball camp at Hillsdale College in Michigan with Terry Furlow and worked at another camp in the Pocono Mountains assisting Dave Bing. He also took courses over the summer towards the completion of his undergraduate degree. This season he will wear a new number, "21" in honor of his friend Dave Bing.

BOBBY "Bingo" SMITH

6-6 — 195 — Forward — No. 7
COLLEGE: Tulsa, 1969
HIGH SCHOOL: Melrose High, Memphis, Tennessee
BIRTHPLACE: Memphis, Tennessee
BIRTHDATE: February 26, 1946 AGE: 31
RESIDENCE: Cleveland, Ohio
PRO EXPERIENCE: San Diego, Cleveland — 8 years
HOW ACQUIRED: Selected from San Diego in 1970 expansion draft.
WIFE: Mary
CHILDREN: Monique (12), Andre (2½)

LAST SEASON: Time has had little effect on "Bingo" Smith, who completed his eighth NBA season and his seventh as a Cavalier. His 14.5 average helped keep the Cavs in the thick of the battle as they earned their second consectuve playoff spot. Against Washington, April 5, 1977, he scored 34 points in an overtime loss.

THIS SEASON: "Bingo" will be back at the small forward slot and his performance will be closely related to the success of the team. A pure shooter and one of the league's top streak shooters, "Bingo" also possesses the ability to contain the NBA's best on defense. The Cavs are hoping to find the pot of gold at the end of his rainbow jumper.

PERSONAL NOTES: Smith is the only Cavalier to play with the team since it entered the league in 1970. The Cavaliers selected him in the 1970 expansion draft from San Diego, who picked him in the first round of the 1969 draft after a fine career at tulsa. He is the Cavaliers' all-time leader in most games played (558), most minutes played (15,855), most field goals made (3,419), most field goals attempted (7,560), most points (7,788), most personals (1,388), and most disqualifications (15). His 41 points against Washington on November 6, 1974 is a personal high and a Capital Centre record for a visitor. In the second game of the 1976 playoffs he hit a long-range jumper with mere seconds remaining to give Cleveland an 80-79 win in one of the most dramatic finishes in NBA playoff history. In his spare time he plays golf for relaxation and shoots in the 70's. A tremendously popular player with the local fans, "Bingo" spent the past summer teaching basketball fundamentals to area youngsters in SOHIO's Youth Basketball Clinics.

RESIDENCE: Inglewood, California
PRO EXPERIENCE: Buffalo, Los Angeles, Milwaukee, Cleveland — 6 years
HOW ACQUIRED: Obtained from Milwaukee with Gary Brokaw in exchange for Rowland Garrett and Cleveland's first round draft picks in 1977 and 1978, January 14, 1977
WIFE: Jessica
CHILDREN: Jennifer (4) Tracy (1)

LAST SEASON: After coming to the Cavaliers from Milwaukee in a midseason trade, Smith lost no time in becoming a favorite of the fans with his shot blocking ability. In 36 games as a Cavalier he blocked 75 shots, a figure that places him ninth on the Cavs all-time swatters list. He finished the season in tenth place among the league leaders in that department. Smith averaged 6.4 rebounds and 8.7 points while shooting 50.4 from the floor (128/254) as a Cavalier. He enjoyed his finest day as a member of the "wine and gold" at Atlanta on March 13th hitting 13 of 14 shots from the floor, 4 of 5 from the line, grabbing 13 rebounds, blocking 6 shots and scoring 30 points

THIS SEASON: After a NBA odyssey that has taken him from Buffalo, to Los Angeles, to Milwaukee and Cleveland, many observers of the pro hardwood circuit feel that Smith has arrived. A fresh start and the expert tutelege of coach Bill Fitch, could be just what the doctor ordered.

PERSONAL NOTES: Smith began playing basketball during his senior year at Ballard-Hudson High in Macon, Georgia. At Kentucky State he made numerous small college All-American teams and was instrumental in leading the Thorobreds to consecutive NAIA titles in 1970 and 1971. As a senior he set an NCAA small college record of 799 rebounds in addition to averaging 25.5 points and 8.6 blocked shots per game. He shot .592 from the field. Smith made the NBA All-Rookie Team in 1972 and was runner-up to Portland's Sidney Wicks, for Rookie of The Year honors. During the 1973-74 season he led the NBA in blocked shots with a 4.9 average and set a league record for blocked shots in a game with 17 against Portland. Enjoys playing backgammon in his spare time.

DICK SNYDER

6-5 — 207 — Guard — No. 10
COLLEGE: Davidson, 1966
HIGH SCHOOL: North Canton Hoover High, North Canton, Ohio
BIRTHPLACE: North Canton, Ohio
BIRTHDATE: February 1, 1944 AGE: 33
RESIDENCE: Paradise Valley, Arizona
PRO EXPERIENCE: St. Louis, Phoenix, Seattle, Cleveland — 11 years
HOW ACQUIRED: Secured from Seattle exchange of first round draft positions in 1974 and Seattle to have the option of changing both first and second round draft positions with Cleveland in the 1976 draft, May 28, 1974.
WIFE: Terie
CHILDREN: Brian (5), Brad (3)

LAST SEASON: The durable and dependable Snyder played in all 82 games for the Cavaliers. In his 11th pro season he started in 18 games for the Cavs playing both the guard and small forward position. He led the team in free throw percentage with an 85.2 mark.

THIS SEASON: Synder still shoots with the best, as evidenced by his .490 career field goal percentage and on defense he is still able to contain opposing players, a valuable asset on a defense-minded club.

PERSONAL NOTES: A native Ohioan, Snyder starred in both football and basketball at Hoover High School in North Canton, Ohio. At Davidson he was a standout in basketball and was selected on the second round of the 1966 NBA draft by the old St. Louis Hawks. Snyder has justly earned his reputation as one of the game's top shooters and defensive performers. He always hustles and plays the game with abandon at all times. Since coming to the Cavs at the start of the 1974-75 season, he has not missed a game. During the 1975-76 campaign he scored his 10,000th professional point, a feat accomplished by 77 players in NBA history of which only 26 are still are active. Synder is the Cavs' all-time leader in field goal percentage with a fine .490 figure and is second in free throw percentage with a .840 mark. His running one-hander banked off the glass with two seconds left helped Cleveland defeat the Washington Bullets in a dramatic seven game playoff series in 1976. In his spare time he enjoys golf and tennis. The restoration of a 1959 Mercedes has also consumed much of his spare time this past summer.

CLARENCE "Foots" WALKER

5-11 — 172 — Guard — No. 14
COLLEGE: West Georgia, 1974
HIGH SCHOOL: Southampton High, Southampton, Long Island, New York
BIRTHPLACE: Southampton, Long Island, New York
BIRTHDATE: May 21, 1951 AGE: 26
RESIDENCE: Southampton, Long Island, New York
PRO EXPERIENCE: Cleveland — 3 years
HOW ACQUIRED: Third round selection in 1974 college draft

LAST SEASON: "Foots" Walker enjoyed his most productive season. A perpetual motion machine on the court, "Foots" set new personal marks for field goals made (157), field goal percentage (.450), free throws made (89), average minutes (19.6), offensive rebounds (55), average rebounds (2.6), points (403), and average points per game (6.5). An injury to Jim Cleamons gave "Foots" the opportunity to prove his value to the team and the little guy from West Georgia passed the test with flying colors. In a span of 24 games he scored 244 points (10.2 avg.) dealt out 145 assists (6.0 avg.) and made 50 steals (2.1 avg.). He started in 16 of the last 24 regular season games and enjoyed his best day as a pro with a 23 point, 10 assist day against Atlanta at The Coliseum (March 26).

THIS SEASON: After last season's performance people will be asking, "What will 'Foots' do for an encore?" "Foots" should have an outstanding year if last season is any indication. The Cavs' little man is looking bigger and bigger.

PERSONAL NOTES: Walker was a high school All-American and was voted "Player of the Year" in New York at the conclusion of his senior year. He led his team to three straight titles and 73 consecutive wins, while breaking the school's scoring mark held by Carl Yastrzemski. At Vincennes, Indiana Junior College he and Bob McAdoo now of the New York Knicks led the team to a perfect 34-0 record and a national championship. In two seasons at West Georgia he scored 1,276 points for 20.9 average and set a school single season record for assists with 415 during his junior year. He concluded his college career by being selected MVP in the 1974 NAIA Tournament and was named to the NAIA All-American Team. His nickname "Foots" was given to him by an uncle who noticed that Clarence wore size 11 shoes at the age of five. In his spare time he enjoys bicycling.

A car built for today, but designed for the years to come.

Fuel efficient.
Excellent EPA mileage ratings.
33 MPG (Hwy.) 23 MPG (City)*

*EPA estimates. Your mileage may vary depending on your car's condition, optional equipment, and how and where you drive. California ratings are lower.

Cost efficient.
A sticker price competitive with many smaller cars.

Bill Fitch says... "Test-drive Fairmont now."
